Here's your chance to win

Get in the Game...Read ADULT SUMMER READING CLUB

For ages 18 and older

Take a chance on reading. It's your "deal."

All readers are winners...but a lucky fourteen will win a variety of board and party games and reading related items, listed on the inside flap.

Rules of play:

1. Register at the library's Reference Desk starting Monday, June 28th.
2. Read books or listen to audio books checked out of Richmond Memorial Library through Friday, August 20th.
3. Record reading on your score card.
4. Collect a prize for six books read.
5. Collect extra chances (tickets) by attending special library programs this summer or by winning the "Theme of the Week" game.
6. Place your chances on the prizes you'd like to win.

Register through August 6, 2010.

Get Your Game On

Members of the Adult Summer Reading Club may borrow popular, new, and recommended board and card games. Show your reading club membership card when you request a game at the front desk. Look at the Games bookmark for descriptions.

It's All a Game

Display of the Week Contest

Identify the theme of the weekly display. Entry forms are at the display. Consider book covers, authors, titles, subjects when making your guess. Prizes awarded weekly. First prize: $10 gift card to Present Tense Books and one chance for the Grand Prizes; Second Place (2)—Chance for the Grand Prizes. Winners must be members of the Summer Reading Club for Adults.

Don't be puzzled... Get facehooked!

An introduction to Facebook Tuesday, July 13 7:00 pm

Are all your friends and family members on Facebook? Do you want to create your own account but don't know where to start...or if you want to start? Lisa Griecius will give this demonstration of the social networking site, Facebook, how to use it, games to get involved in (or not), and ways to manage it. Registration is not required. Lisa works as a residence manager for DePaul Community Services and is a 2009 graduate of the School of Library and Information Science at SUNY Buffalo.

Reel Discussions: "Word Play" Thursday, July 22 6:00 pm

This entertaining documentary shows players who are in crossword tournaments. Watch the movie and join the discussion.

Registration is not required.

Mystery Tea and Trivia Mon., July 26 6:00-8:00 pm

All participants will be winners in this evening of English tea (light supper) and mystery trivia. Prizes include signed copies of new mysteries and advance readers copies of 2010 mysteries. Eat, drink, hear about new mysteries and test your knowledge of crime novels. Limited to 30 participants with preference to members of the Adult Summer Reading Club. Registration will begin on Monday, July 1. (This is the July meeting for Mystery Lovers' Mondays.)

NOTE: If you register for this program and are unable to attend, please call the library.

e-Readers - A First Look Thursday, August 19 2:00-4:00 pm

Learn about the various e-readers on the market and how the e-reader is used for reading books as well as other functions. How can e-readers benefit and improve your reading experience? Will they have a benefit in the education community? Can they be used for book clubs and literature discussion circles? All this and more as we take a first look at e-readers. The Nook, Kindle, and Sony Reader will be available for hands-on exploration. Registration not required. Presented by Susan M. Bartle, Director of School Library System for Erie 2-Chautauqua-Cattaraugus BOCES.
