

Library Director III

Are you a capable public administrator with the ability to supervise and inspire a team of up to 30 knowledgeable, resourceful, dynamic and innovative staff members? Do you have a creative vision for public library services, and the skills to put your vision into operation? Do you want to work in a beautiful, historic building, serving a community at the crossroads of all that western New York has to offer? The Richmond Memorial Library, one of the highest-performing public libraries in the region, seeks candidates for an appointment to Library Director III.

The Community: The city of Batavia (pop. 15,600) is the central city and government seat of mostly rural Genesee County, NY (pop. 58,388). Located just 42 minutes from downtown Buffalo and 37 minutes from downtown Rochester – New York’s second and third largest cities, respectively. Enjoy the laid-back pleasures of a small community with accessibility to all of the amenities of big city living, and proximity to New York’s Great Lakes, Finger Lakes, and beautiful Southern Tier regions. The micropolitan city of Batavia offers all these benefits, with the library serving as a recognized and respected community hub.

The Library: This school district-type public library is chartered to serve a population of approximately 19,000 residents of the Batavia City School District. With a tax levy of $1.38 million, dedicated grants, and ongoing support from devoted fundraising groups, the library’s budget for FY 2022-23 comes close to $1.8 million. With 14 full time, 12 regular part time, and another half dozen occasional subs, the library delivers 64 hours of high quality, innovative and sustained public services per week in a beautiful landmark building that is owned and maintained by the school district. RML serves as the de facto central library of the county, and as a leader in the three-county cooperative Nioga Library System. A Board of Trustees of seven members is elected by the residents of the Batavia City School District to oversee the policies of the library.

Major Duties:

- Develops and evaluates plans for library services, evaluating the effectiveness of the library’s services and programs in relation to the changing needs of the community;
- Recommends appointments, transfers, promotions, dismissal and staffing patterns of personnel;
- Directs and supervises the budgeting and expenditure of library funds and the collection of library revenues;
