THE LIBRARIAN RECOMMENDS:

MUCH ADO ABOUT NADA BY UZMA JALALUDDIN (JUNE 13)

This third outing by Ayesha at Last author Uzma Jalaluddin does not disappoint. Much Ado About Nada finds its protagonist Nada Syed feeling stuck after a series of professional and personal disappointments. When her best friend Haleema insists she attend the big Muslim convention in Toronto, Nada knows she will run into some ghosts from her past, including Baz, the one that got away- or rather, the one she ran away from. A lovely slow burn right until the end, Much Ado About Nada is both a beautifully fresh take and an homage to its inspiration, Persuasion by Jane Austen.
